

Kinetik forms strategic partnership with RAHN USA Corporation

Hazlet, NJ—Kinetik Technologies is pleased to announce that it has formed a strategic partnership with RAHN USA Corporation. Beginning July 1, 2009, Kinetik will represent the RAHN line of cosmetic active ingredients in North America.

RAHN is internationally known in the cosmetic industry for the development of innovative and high-quality active ingredients for personal care. This range of active ingredients has become increasingly significant to the specialty products marketplace worldwide.

The inclusion of the RAHN Actives provides an impressive complement to Kinetik's exciting range of natural and functional ingredients for personal care.
